Meeting Called to Order

Workshop Intent:

The Town of Inglis Commission and the Town of Yankeetown Council will be meeting May 24, 2023 for a public workshop in order to mend and discuss municipal relations. This meeting will be held at the Inglis Community Center.

The topics that will be discussed will solely be pertaining to current interlocal agreements, potential agreements in the future, and issues that both towns may need to address together. If a resident desire to discuss another topic you may bring it to the attention of the elected officials and they may deem whether that topic is appropriate at that time.

This is a workshop therefore no votes will be held at this meeting. If the elected officials believe the meeting is becoming unfruitful either party has the right to adjourn.

Adjournment
